

The big list of discipline classroom language

Noise

Shh

Keep the noise down (please)

One point to the person/ team who can do it/ say it most quietly

(Everyone) fingers on your lips (and be quiet)

What does this gesture/ sign mean (in English)?

The next person to speak has to...

Move your chairs quietly please

The class next door can hear you

Mr/ Ms... is going to complain about the noise again

Touch it with one finger, not your whole hand

Tiptoe!

Move your desks apart so that they don't bang into each other

Why do I have my fingers in my ears?

Stop talking please

(Be) quiet please

Why are you talking?

I'm waiting for everyone to be quiet

Could you please not talk when I'm talking? / What do you do while the teacher is talking?/

Speaking while the teacher is talking is rude, isn't it?

(Put your) hands up (if you want to speak)

Don't shout out! / One at a time please

Good. One more time, but (even more) quietly

Please stand up and tell everyone what you were saying/ laughing about

What was that noise?

Was that you I heard...ing?

Did I hear...?

What does shhh mean?

Stop tapping your fingers/ pen (please)

Please read silently

It's quiet time

What does this sign mean? (pointing to a sign on the wall showing a finger on lips or a red cross over someone shouting)

No shouting

That hurts my ears

No talking

Make sure the other teams can't hear you/ If the other team can hear you they will...

Whisper the answer (to me/ your partner)

What's the rule about talking during tests/ story time/ handwriting practice?

Listening

Listen to...

Make the listening gesture/ Do the listening action/ Put your hand round your ear like this
