Ask and analyse 100 typical IELTS Speaking Part One questions

Without looking below, choose a number at random. Your partner will ask you that question from below. Continue until your teacher stops the game, switching roles after each question. You can try to avoid or get the same questions as other people by remembering the numbers if you like, but you can't write the numbers down. If you can't understand the question that you are supposed to ask, ask your teacher what it means. If the person answering doesn't understand the question, they should ask their partner to repeat, explain or rephrase the question.

Other useful functions for the person answering the question:
1. Checking (again) what the question means
2. Commenting on the question/ Filling silence while pausing for thought/ Dealing with difficult questions
3. Commenting on the match or possible (mismatch) between the question and the answer
4. Vague language/ Saying you are not sure (e.g. you can't remember exactly)
5. Changing your mind halfway through an answer/ Correcting wrong information
6. Explaining things that the examiner might not know or understand (e.g. names of things which are specific to your country)
7. Giving reasons
8. Different (past, present or future) time expressions (“a few days ago” etc)
9. Different tenses and other similar verb forms (“planning to” etc)

Ask your teacher about any questions you don’t understand, don’t know how to answer or think you can’t answer.
Without looking above, try to remember as much as you can about the questions above, for example:

Topics

Tenses and other similar verbs forms for talking about the present, past, future and hypothetical situations ("-ing", "used to", "want", "wish" etc – the grammar of the questions)

Question stems (= phrases in the questions that could be used to many more similar questions on the same or different topics)

Look back at the questions to find ones you missed, underlining useful question stems.

Make sure you found all the topics and tenses and similar on the next page. There are at least four questions for each topic and more than one for some of the tenses etc, but you only need to think of or find one for each.

Hints: The questions have 25 different topics, 100 different question stems and 11 different tenses and similar verb forms.
