

BULATS Speaking Test useful phrases

With your partner, write at least two useful phrases for each of the things below, then compare them with the suggested answers on the next two pages.

Speaking Part One

Greetings

Handing something over

Explaining your name

Responding to the examiner's request to ask you questions

Dealing with difficulties

When you don't understand a spoken question

When you don't understand a written question

Pausing for thought

Answering difficult questions

When you are unable to answer a question

Speaking Part Two

Starting your presentation

Getting your presentation back on track

Finishing your Part Two presentation

Speaking Part Three

Starting the Part Three roleplay meeting

Introducing each question

Asking extra questions

Responding to the answers

Ending the roleplay meeting

Giving your opinion on the Part Three discussion question

Agreeing with the examiner's opinion

Disagreeing with the examiner's opinion

Suggested answers

* = less common expression

Greetings

Good morning/ afternoon.

Nice to meet you./ Pleased to meet you./ How do you do?*

Hi./ Hello.

Handing something over

(Just a second.) (Where is it? Ah.) Here you are. / Here you go.*

Explaining your name

(My name's Mikiko/ Mikiko Suzuki, but) you can call me Miki/ everyone calls me Miki/ most people find it easier to call me Miki/ please call me Miki.

Please use my nickname/ English name, which is...

Responding to the examiner's request to ask you questions

Okay/ That's fine.

(No problem/ Sure). Go ahead./ Please do.*

When you don't understand a spoken question

(Sorry). What does... mean?

Can you repeat the question, please?

I don't really understand the question. (Could you explain it another way?)

When you don't understand a written question

Can I ask a question about the task?

What does this word mean?

Pausing for thought

(Hmm) (Interesting question.) Let me see/ Let me think.

Answering difficult questions

I'm not really sure/ I don't know much about this/ I'm no expert, but I guess/ I suppose...

When you are unable to answer a question

(I'm) sorry,/ I'm afraid nothing is coming to mind./ I really can't think of anything at the moment./ I really can't remember (right now).

Starting your Part Two presentation

I'd like to/ I'm going to talk/ speak about...

I'm going to give a short presentation about...

Getting your presentation back on track

Anyway,...

What else did I have to speak about? Oh yes,...

Moving on to...

Finishing your Part Two presentation

I think that covers everything.

... and that is all I can think of to say on the topic.

Starting the Part Three roleplay meeting

Hi. Thanks for coming to see me today. I'm... I'd like to ask you some questions about..., if that's okay.

Introducing your questions

I (also) have a question about.../ Can I (also) ask you about...?

Another thing I wanted to ask was...

My final question...

Asking extra questions

So, does that mean...?

Can you give me an example?

I've just thought of one more question.

Responding to the answers

That sounds good.

Really?

Okay.

Mmmm hmmm.

Ending the roleplay meeting

Thank you for all the information.

I'll check with my boss and get back to you in the next couple of days./ I'm seeing some other companies this afternoon and I'll make a choice then.

Giving your opinion on the Part Three discussion question

I (really) think that...

In my (honest) opinion...

Agreeing with the examiner's opinion

I think so too.

That's my opinion too.

Disagreeing with the examiner's opinion

That's a good point, but...

I know some people think that, but personally...

You could be right but...