

This Week- Countable and Uncountable Countable and Uncountable Nouns/ Present Perfect Simple

Try to find things you have done more of than your partner in the last seven days by giving information about yourself and/ or asking your partner questions.

Suggested topics

- Alcohol/ Drinking
- Breaks
- Commuting/ Travel/ Hours on trains
- (Cups of) tea/ (Cups of) coffee
- Eating out/ Fast food/ Junk food
- Emails/ Emailing
- Exercise/ Walking
- Food/ Meals
- Housework
- Listening to music/ Listening to the radio
- Meeting people from overseas
- (Business) meetings
- Reading
- Shopping/ Purchases
- Sleep
- Smoking/ Cigarettes
- Snacks
- Spending money
- Spending time with your family
- Studying
- Studying English/ Homework
- Surfing the web
- Teleconferences/ Videoconferences
- Telephoning
- Using English
- Watching TV/ Watching DVDs/ Watching movies
- Work/ Hours at work/ Jobs/ Projects

Useful language

A huge amount/ number	A lot
Quite a lot	Not much
Little/ Few	Very little/ Very few
Hardly any	No.../ None

Without looking at the last page, put "s" after any of the nouns below which can take it.

- Alcohol/ Drinking
- Break
- Commuting/ Travel/ Hour on train
- (Cup of) tea/ (Cup of) coffee
- Eating out/ Fast food/ Junk food
- Email/ Emailing
- Exercise/ Walking
- Food/ Meal
- Housework
- Listening to music/ Listening to the radio
- Meeting people (from overseas)
- (Business) meeting
- Reading
- Shopping/ Purchase
- Sleep
- Smoking/ Cigarette
- Snack
- Spending money
- Spending time with your family
- Studying
- Studying English/ Homework
- Surfing the web
- Teleconference/ Videoconference
- Telephoning
- Using English
- Watching TV/ Watching DVD/ Watching movie
- Work/ Hour at work/ Job/ Project

Check your answers with the last page. Other answers might be possible.

What would these things mean?

I have done some exercises.

I have drunk many teas.

I have watched many TVs.