

Days of the week dominoesInstructions for teachers

Cut up the cards so that the beginning of one day is on the right and the end of the day before is on the left of each card, but only cutting across the table, not down the middle. Students work together to put all the cards together in a ring with the days in order, and/ or deal the cards out and play a game of dominoes.

Four weeks version
