

Days of the Week- Pick and Draw
Days of the week/ Present Simple/ Third person -S

Instructions for teachers

Cut up one pack of cards per class, or one pack per group of two to four students. Maybe give out blank paper if you want students to work in groups. Get students to draw a grid with seven squares to represent the seven days on paper or on the board. Students take turns making sentences from the cards and then either drawing that thing themselves or making someone else draw it in the relevant box or boxes. Students can either make true/ sensible sentences like "My mother goes to the supermarket on Saturday" or silly sentences like "The cat goes to school on Wednesdays".

After about ten or twenty minutes of this, you can get them to:

- describe their pictures using similar sentences
- make sentences with the cards to describe other people's pictures
- test each other on their memories of the pictures
- continue drawing, this time after saying and/ or writing their own free choice of sentences
- make other cards to play the same game with

Cards to cut up

My baby sister	My big brother
My cat	My doctor
My dog	My father
My favourite football player	My grandmother
My grandfather	My mother
My teacher	The king
The queen	Santa

beats the carpets	cleans the house	cooks
drinks wine	feels happy	feels tired
goes hiking	goes shopping	goes to the cinema
goes to the park	hangs out the washing	is on TV
meets new people	paints	plays golf
plays soccer	studies	takes the train

on

Mondays	Tuesdays	Wednesday s	Thursdays
Fridays	Saturdays	Sundays	and