

Electoral Reform

In most lines, there is a word which is spelled incorrectly. In the spaces on the right, write the correct spelling or put a tick to show that the line is correct.

- | | |
|---|-------------------|
| 1. You rightly promote electoral reform as way of acheiving a more | 1. achieving |
| 2. representitive government, but appear to overlook its possible role in solving | 2. representative |
| 3. another important problem with our democracy: voter apathy. | 3. ✓ |
| 4. Under the currant system, political parties concentrate their campaigning | 4. current |
| 5. on marginal seats, where the result is unknown and may be effected | 5. affected |
| 6. by their efforts. Yet they seem surprized that many of the electorate | 6. surprised |
| 7. in safe seats might similarly calculate that voting is a waist of precious time, | 7. waste |
| 8. since for most very little is affected by their efforts. | 8. ✓ |
| 9. The hole idea of tactical voting serves to point out the problems of our | 9. whole |
| 10. system. If voters are forced to vote against someone they do not want, | 10. ✓ |
| 11. rather than for who they want, something is clearly wrong. | 11. whom |
| 12. A form of proportional representation, preferably the single transferible | 12. transferable |
| 13. vote, as used in the Irish Republic, would allow people a real choose | 13. choice |
| 14. not just between parties but also between individual candadates. | 14. candidates |