

FCE (Cambridge First Certificate) Listening Part Two- guessing what goes in the gaps

Without looking below for now, guess anything you like about the gaps in the exam task that you have been given. You will get one mark for anything that is true and that no one else has been given a mark for yet.

Use the hints below to help with the task above. Note that some things are not true about any of the gaps below (although they might be true in other exam tasks). You can also try to guess exactly what words go in the gaps if you like, though that is obviously more difficult.

- It ends with –ing
- It makes a compound noun with the word after the gap
- It's a colour
- It's a compound noun
- It's a concrete noun – It's an abstract noun
- It's a countable noun – It's an uncountable noun
- It's a date
- It's a kind of clothes or accessory
- It's a kind of food
- It's a large number –It's a small number.
- It's a living thing
- It's a negative word – It's a positive word
- It's a noun with an adjective
- It's a noun with an optional adjective
- It's a noun.
- It's a number
- It's a number with zero in it
- It's a part of the body
- It's a physical object.
- It's a piece of equipment.
- It's a place
- It's a plural noun – It's a singular noun

- It's a school subject
- It's a season
- It's an activity
- It's an adjective
- It's an amount of money
- It's an animal
- It's connected to money
- It's connected to transport
- It's made of paper
- It's some technology
- It's the name a month
- It's the name of a job
- It's two words with a hyphen

Do the listening and/ or read the transcript and check what really went in each gap. Then try to work out which kinds are most common.