

Food and Drink Comparatives Discussion and Presentation

Compare two things connected to food, e.g. two restaurants, cafés, food shops, supermarkets, convenience stores, foods, drinks, cuisines from two different countries or regions, etc. You can use the comparatives below or different ones. Does your partner agree with your opinion?

Useful language for giving opinions

“I think... is... than... (because...)” “I think you’re right.” “Really? I think...”

Useful comparative adjectives for comparing food and drink

- more addictive than
- more atmospheric than
- more attractive than
- more authentic than
- cheaper than
- cleaner than
- more comfortable than
- more convenient than
- more delicious than/ tastier than
- more disgusting than/ yuckier than
- easier to cook than
- more ecologically friendly than/ greener than
- more fashionable than/ trendier than
- fattier than
- more filling than
- friendlier than
- more fun than
- better value for money than
- healthier than
- heavier than
- lighter than

- livelier than
- more luxurious than
- more popular than
- quieter than
- more relaxing than
- richer than
- more romantic than
- saltier than
- smellier than
- smokier than
- spicier than
- stranger than
- stronger than
- sweeter than
- more traditional than
- unhealthier than/ worse for your health than
- more unusual than

Ask about words above you don't understand, working together to make a comparison.

Comparative adjectives grammar presentation

Without looking above for now, put the words below into the correct comparative form.

	addictive atmospheric attractive authentic
	cheap
	clean comfortable convenient
delicious		tasty
disgusting		yucky
	easy
ecologically friendly		green
fashionable		trendy
	fatty filling
fun	friendly	good value for money healthy
	heavy lively luxurious popular
	quiet
	relaxing
	rich romantic salty
	smelly
	smoky spicy strange strong sweet
unhealthy	traditional	bad for your health unusual

Check your answers on the last page. What are the rules about making comparatives?

What are the rules in these cases?

- y changes to _____
- three or more syllables change to _____
- one syllable usually changes to _____, but _____ changes to _____
- two syllables usually change to _____ but sometimes change to _____
- _____ and _____ are irregular