

Food and Drink- Present Perfect Saying Yes Bluffing Game

Ask a yes/ no Present Perfect question about food and drink, maybe using the words or on the topics on the next page, for example “Have you ever eaten in Pizza Express?” or “Have you ever bought live fish?” Your partner must answer “Yes, I have”, even if that is not true, i.e. they are not allowed to say “No, I haven’t” even if that is the case. Ask three questions about that experience, then guess if their answers are true or false.

Do the same, but this time only using suitable time expressions other than “ever” such as those below.

Time expressions for use with Present Perfect

ever

in the last three years/ two hours

since I last saw you/ you left university/ you woke up this morning/...

this month/ week/ year/...

today

Grammar presentation

Why are all the time expressions above suitable for use with Present Perfect? Why do expressions like “two years ago” and “last year” have to go with Simple Past?

What are the Past Participle forms of all the verbs above (“been”, “done”, etc)?
