

Guess the Future Time- Predictions Practice

Choose one of the times on the cards and give hints about your imagination of things/ life at that time until your partner guesses exactly that time. They can only guess once per hint, but you can also give hints about how wrong their guesses are such as “No, it’s much sooner”, “No, it’s slightly later” and “That’s true, but the time written on my card is wider/ narrower”.

Useful phrases for giving hints

“That’s not quite right. I’ll give you another hint.”

“It could be then, but that’s not the time I’m thinking of. I’ll give you another clue.”

“That’s true, but the time I have a longer period/ a shorter period. I’ll give you another hint.”

“It can’t be that time, because I said...”

“No, it’s (much/ quite a lot/ a bit/ a tiny bit) sooner/ later (because...)”

“That’s (exactly) right. It’s your turn.”

Ask about any times, verbs, etc below that you don’t understand or couldn’t make a prediction about, working together to make predictions each time.

Future time expressions presentation

Without looking below, put all the cards into order by how far they are in the future (from now). Note that the order might be slightly different to the list, depending on when it is now.

Without looking at the cards, fill the gaps below with one word. Sometimes more than one answer is possible.

_____ evening
Tomorrow _____.

_____ weekend.
_____ day after tomorrow.

_____ three days.
The week after _____.

_____ (the year) 2020.

Check with the cards, checking with your teacher if you wrote something different.
