

Answer Sheet: Idioms- Numbers

Choose the correct answer. You'll find these and other idioms about numbers here:
<http://www.usingenglish.com/reference/idioms/category.php?cat=34>

Q1 - If something is done quickly, in a single period of activity and often ruthlessly, it is done in one ____ swoop.

- fell foul

Q2 - A ballpark figure is a precise figure.

- True False

Q3 - If someone is one over the eight, they are drunk.

- True False

Q4 - If something is all at sixes and sevens, it is well-organised.

- True False

Q5 - If you put ____ and two together, you reach a correct conclusion from the facts available.

- one two

Q6 - If you stand four-square behind someone, you give them your full support.

- True False

Q7 - A double take is when something causes two problems at the same time.

- True False

Q8 - If someone talks very quickly, they talk six to the dozen.

True ✓ False

Q9 - If someone is given the three degrees, they are put under a great deal of pressure and intimidation to force them to tell the truth about something.

True ✓ False

Q10 - If you look out for number one, you take care of yourself and your interests, rather than those of other people.

✓ True False