

Answer Sheet: Phrasal Verbs - Have

Choose the correct answer.

Q1 - 'Have down as' means to have a bad opinion of.

True ✓ False

Q2 - If you have it in for someone, you have a grudge against them.

✓ True False

Q3 - If you have it out with someone, you entertain them in your home.

True ✓ False

Q4 - If you have someone down as a conservative, you think that is what they believe.

✓ True False

Q5 - If you have some cheese in the house, you haven't run out.

✓ True False

Q6 - If you have something against someone, you don't believe them.

True ✓ False

Q7 - If you have the builders in your home, they are doing work there.

✓ True False

Q8 - If you have it away with someone, you have a particular opinion about what they believe or think.

True ✓ False

Q9 - If you have friends round, you tell them exactly what you think of them.

True ✓ False

Q10 - If you have a day off, you don't go to work.

✓ True False