Match the IELTS Speaking Part Two tasks below to the topics "Work" or "Study"

Task A

Describe a teacher who has greatly influenced you in your education.

You should say:

where you met them;

what subject they taught;

what was special about them;

and explain why this person influenced you so much.

Task B

Describe an English language speaking test you have taken or are planning to take.

You should say:

Why you decided to take the test

How the experience of taking the test was or how you expect to be

How you have studied for the test and how useful that study has been in improving your general English level

And say if you think the test is well designed and if not how it could be improved

Task C

Describe an English language course you have studied

You should say:

Why you chose that course

If it matched your expectations

What, if anything, you would change about the course if you could

And explain what you plan to do next to improve your English

Match these sub-topics to the different IELTS Speaking Part Two task cards above.

Why you were disappointed with your course.

This person's personality

How your life has been changed by this person

How you would like to change IELTS

How you want to use English in the future
