

Names of Jobs- Subject Questions Quiz

Work together to answer these questions, using the big list below to help if you need to.

- Who makes and sells bread?
- Who delivers letters?
- Who plays a piano?
- Whose job title is two words starting with P and O?
- Who teaches in someone's house?
- Which person is in charge of the day-to-day running of a company?
- Whose job involves cutting and selling meat?
- Who fixes pipes and water problems?
- What kind of doctor is called "Mr...", not "Dr..."?
- Who made horseshoes?
- Who do you pay to come to your house and look after your children for a few hours?

Match the questions to these answers:

A babysitter.

A baker does.

A blacksmith did.

A butcher's does.

A CEO is.

A pianist does.

A plumber does.

A police officer's is.

A postal worker does.

A private tutor does.

A surgeon is.

Together analyse the structure of the questions and answers above.

How are the other questions and answers different from "Who do you pay to come to your house and look after your children for a few hours?" "A babysitter".

In which kind of question is the question word (= Wh... word) the subject of the question?

Make similar questions to test your partner on other words from above, giving them different options to choose from if they aren't sure.

Ask about any words which you don't understand, making similar questions to get that word once you understand.

Work together to answer the questions below about the differences between similar jobs:

- Which is a full-time professional job, a nanny or a babysitter?
- Which is better paid, a banker or a bank clerk?

Test each other on differences between similar words above with questions starting with "Which...?"

- actor
- au pair
- babysitter
- baker
- bank clerk
- banker
- bar tender
- barber
- barista
- baseball player
- blacksmith
- bouncer
- builder
- butcher
- cameraman/ camera operator
- care worker
- caretaker/ janitor
- carpenter
- CEO
- chauffeur
- chef
- civil servant/ public servant
- comedian
- cook
- critic
- customs officer
- director
- electrician
- emperor
- engineer
- entrepreneur
- estate agent/ real estate agent/ realtor
- fiancé/ fiancée
- flight attendant
- florist
- footballer/ football player
- GP/ general practitioner
- homemaker
- immigration officer
- interpreter
- king
- lecturer
- magician
- manager
- masseur/ masseuse
- mayor

- mechanic
- monk
- musician
- nanny
- newsreader/ news anchor
- novelist
- nun
- nutritionist
- office worker
- PA
- photographer
- pianist
- plumber
- police officer
- politician
- postal worker
- priest
- prime minister
- private tutor
- professor
- psychiatrist
- psychologist
- queen
- receptionist
- sailor
- sales assistant
- sales rep/ sales representative
- security guard
- server
- social worker
- soldier
- surgeon
- TA/ teaching assistant
- tailor
- technician/ service engineer
- television celebrity
- television presenter
- therapist
- town councillor
- traffic warden
- translator/
- vet/ veterinarian
- violinist

Jobs word formation

Add suffixes or words to the words below to make job titles/ names of jobs. You don't need to change the root words there.

- act
- bank
- baseball
- build
- camera
- care work
- customs
- direct
- electric
- interpret
- magic
- music
- novel
- nutrition
- office
- photograph
- reception
- sail
- social
- assist
- present
- violin

Use the mixed suffixes and words below to help. Most have more than one example above.

-ant
-er
-ian
-ist
man officer
operator
-or player worker