

Opinions with Gradable and Extreme Adjectives

Try to make statements using adjectives below that your partner agrees with. If possible, try to also agree on the adverbs and/ or make statements with pairs of both gradable and extreme adjectives, e.g. both agreeing that one thing is “absolutely awful” and that a different thing is “fairly bad”.

Possible topics

- Tourist spots
- Movies
- TV series
- (Visual) arts
- Museums
- Dining spots
- Nightlife spots
- Shops
- Food and drink
- Technology
- Brands
- Accommodation (e.g. hotel)
- Transport (e.g. airline)
- Books

I think/ In my opinion/ I'd say that To be frank/ Frankly I really think that B&Bs Bangkok black coffee business meetings durian exams German gin horror movies Italy jogging learning Chinese London maths murder mysteries roller coasters Skype snails teleconferences thatched cottages The Mona Lisa is are

Adverbs with gradable adjectives (a little) extremely fairly incredibly not very really (slightly) very	Adverbs with extreme adjectives absolutely completely really totally utterly gradable adjectives	extreme adjectives (= very/ extremely + gradable adjectives) amusing/ funny	hilarious/ side-splitting annoying/ irritating	infuriating attractive/ good looking/ pretty	gorgeous/ stunning bad	awful/ dreadful/ disastrous/ terrible good	great/ brilliant/ fantastic/ fabulous/ terrific boring	mind-numbing/ stupefying interesting	captivating/ fascinating/ spellbinding exciting	gripping/ thrilling crowded	packed/ cram-packed challenging/ difficult/ hard/ tricky	impossible dirty	filthy
confusing	mind-boggling/ mystifying cold	freezing
different/ distinctive	unique expensive/ pricey	exorbitant frightening/ scary	terrifying/ petrifying hot	baking/ boiling/ roasting important/ necessary	crucial/ essential/ vital impressive	awe inspiring loud/ noisy	ear-splitting memorable	unforgettable moving	heart-wrenching
nice/ pleasant	charming/ lovely/ delightful painful	excruciating
silly	idiotic/ ridiculous special	exceptional
surprising	amazing/ astonishing/ unbelievable tasty	delicious/ mouth-watering/ lip-smacking tiring	exhausting
ugly	hideous
unpleasant/ yucky	repulsive/ revolting/ sickening unsuccessful	disastrous

Ask about anything in the table below that you couldn't understand or couldn't use.

Mixed gradable and extreme adjectives amazing/ astonishing/ unbelievable

amusing/ funny
annoying/ irritating
attractive/ good looking/ pretty
awe inspiring awful/ dreadful/ disastrous/ terrible
bad
baking/ boiling/ roasting
boring
captivating/ fascinating/ spellbinding challenging/ difficult/ hard/ tricky charming/ lovely/ delightful cold
confusing
crowded
crucial/ essential/ vital delicious/ mouth-watering/ lip-smacking different/ distinctive dirty
disastrous
ear-splitting exceptional
exciting excruciating exhausting
exorbitant
expensive/ pricey
filthy
freezing
frightening/ scary
good gorgeous/ stunning
great/ brilliant/ fantastic/ fabulous/ terrific gripping/ thrilling
heart-wrenching
hideous
hilarious/ side-splitting
hot
idiotic/ ridiculous
important/ necessary
impossible
impressive
infuriating
interesting
loud/ noisy
memorable

mind-boggling/ mystifying
mind-numbing/ stupefying
moving
nice/ pleasant
packed/ cram-packed
painful
repulsive/ revolting/ sickening silly
special surprising
tasty
terrifying/ petrifying
tiring
ugly
unforgettable
unique
unpleasant/ yucky
unsuccessful

Adverbs to go with gradable and extreme adjectives

One can be used twice.

- a little
- absolutely
- completely
- extremely
- fairly
- incredibly
- not very
- really
- slightly
- totally
- utterly
- very

Gradable adjectives

Make sure that you have these words in the left-hand column above, and then match the other words above to them.

amusing/ funny
annoying/ irritating
attractive/ good looking/ pretty
bad
good
boring
interesting
exciting
crowded
challenging/ difficult/ hard/ tricky
dirty
confusing
cold
different/ distinctive
expensive/ pricey
frightening/ scary
hot
important/ necessary
impressive
loud/ noisy
memorable
moving
nice/ pleasant
painful
silly
special
surprising
tasty
tiring
ugly
unpleasant/ yucky
unsuccessful

Extreme adjectives

amazing/ astonishing/ unbelievable
awe inspiring
awful/ dreadful/ disastrous/ terrible
baking/ boiling/ roasting
captivating/ fascinating/ spellbinding
charming/ lovely/ delightful
crucial/ essential/ vital
delicious/ mouth-watering/ lip-smacking
disastrous
ear-splitting
exceptional
excruciating
exhausting
exorbitant
filthy
freezing
gorgeous/ stunning
great/ brilliant/ fantastic/ fabulous/ terrific
gripping/ thrilling
heart-wrenching
hideous
hilarious/ side-splitting
idiotic/ ridiculous
impossible
infuriating
mind-boggling/ mystifying
mind-numbing/ stupefying
packed/ cram-packed
repulsive/ revolting/ sickening
terrifying/ petrifying
unforgettable
unique

Check your answers with the second page. Other answers might be possible, so please check anything else you wrote with your teacher.

Test each other on the vocabulary:

- Read out a pair and see if your partner can say which one means “extremely” + the other one
- Read out a gradable adjective and help your partner make the extreme version
- Read out an extreme adjective and help your partner make the gradable version
- Read out an adjective and see if your partner can identify which kind it is and then make the other version
- Help your partner brainstorm as many extreme adjectives as they can