Adjectives and adverbs guessing dice game

Roll a dice to decide what adverb in the middle column below you should use. Think of someone whose appearance or character matches that adverb + an adjective, say that sentence, and see if your partner can guess who that person is. For example, say "His hair is really long", and see if your partner can guess that it's your brother. If your partner guesses the wrong person, give more hints (with or without the language below). They can only guess once per hint.

He is	1. so/ really really/ very very	● tall
She is	2. very/ really	● short
His hair is	3. quite/ fairly	● fat
Her hair is	4. a bit/ a little/ not very	● thin/ slim
His eyes are	5. not/ not at all	● long
Her eyes are	6. FREE CHOICE	● short
		● curly
		● straight
		● dark
		● blonde
		● blue
		● brown/ dark brown
