

Present Simple Matchmakers Game

Find out which of the things on the cards that you are given your partner would like most by asking about their routines and preferences (= what they do and what they like doing). Don't tell your partner what the choices are. When you are sure about which one is best for them, explain which one you chose and why. They can then look at the choices and see whether they might have liked one of the other two better.

Postal worker Get up early Get exercise Work on your own Ride a bicycle Wear a hat Wear a uniform Drive a van Work the same place every day	Vet Work with animals Get dirty Use special toys Work inside and outside Wear a white coat Stay clean Be caring Be gentle	Police officer Run Speak to many people Carry a gun Use technology Shout Be strong Drive fast Work inside and outside
---	---	---

Spain Go to bed late Eat a big lunch Eat lunch late Eat dinner late Have a small breakfast Have a morning snack Drink coffee Eat lots of meat Dance Take a nap	England Eat dinner early Have a big breakfast Eat foreign food Make lots of jokes Drink tea Eat lamb Have a big Sunday lunch Drink beer Speak English Move away from home early	Japan Eat rice Eat lots of fish Read comics Sleep on the train Study hard Work hard Take lots of tests Polite Food TV programmes
--	---	---

Nature volunteer Outside Hard physical work Work together Get dirty Get cold Use tools Be careful	Citizens' advice bureau Study hard Help people Speak on the phone Work inside Use a computer Research	Care worker Work with people Give medicine Work inside and outside Be careful Keep to the rules Work late at night
--	---	--