

Guess the person- third person -s practice game

Choose one of the people below but don't say who you are thinking of. Describe them using expressions like those on the next page until your partners guess who you are talking about.

- A bus driver
- A classmate (= a student in the same class)
- A friend
- A neighbour
- A nurse
- A police officer
- A shop assistant
- A singer that I like
- A sportsman that I like
- A waiter/ waitress
- An actor that I like
- An artist that I like
- My (maths/ geography/ science/ Japanese/ PE/ history/ music/ English/...) teacher
- My aunt
- My brother's friend/ My sister's friend
- My cousin
- My doctor
- My father
- My friend's brother/ sister
- My friend's father
- My friend's mother
- My grandfather
- My grandmother
- My host father
- My host mother
- My mother
- My older brother/ sister
- My uncle
- My younger brother/ sister

Do the same with someone who isn't in the list above.

Choose another person (in the list or someone else) and this time say who they are. Your partners will try to make true sentences about that person.

Suggested questions

He She	is isn't doesn't can can't likes doesn't like	dance do get get up go go to have listen to live play read sing swim talk to watch wear work	-s -ing	lunch a shower school television baseball karaoke breakfast dinner bed science magazines comics housework the radio homework the washing up cards computer games board games English Geography sports History Maths Japanese music ... hair ... eyes	now at... (o'clock) at half... at... past... at... to... in London in Hong Kong in Sydney in the USA in the morning in the afternoon in the evening at night
He She	is	tall – medium-height – short fat – medium-build – slim good-looking/ handsome/ beautiful ... years old
His Her	name birthday	is			