Superlative Adjectives Discuss and Agree

Choose topics from below and try to agree with your partner. If they disagree, try to change their mind, or think of something else that you can both agree on. If they still disagree, move on to another topic. Write down anything that you agree on to share with the other groups after you finish.

Useful phrases for discussing superlative sentences

“I think… is the…”

“I agree”/ “I think so too”/ “Me too” – “Really? I think…”

- the most annoying action/ the most irritating action
- the worst housework/ the most boring housework
- the worst weather
- the most beautiful mountain
- the most boring school subject
- the cheapest supermarket
- the coolest hairstyle
- the coolest musical instrument
- the coolest sport
- the coolest transport
- the cutest animal
- the most difficult musical instrument
- the most disgusting animal
- the most disgusting food
- the easiest food to cook
- the easiest musical instrument
- the most fun toy
- the best country for a holiday
- the best family size
- the best job
- the best month
- the best place near here
- the best season
- the best shop
- the best winter activity
- the hardest exercise
- the healthiest breakfast
- the healthiest food
- the most important furniture
- the most important thing in this room
- the laziest pet
- the most relaxing transport
- the scariest animal
- the most stressful job
- the tastiest vegetable/ most delicious vegetable
- the tastiest vending machine drink
- the trendiest haircut/ most fashionable hairstyle
Share some things you agreed on with another group or the whole class and see if they agree.

Ask about any which you didn’t understand, found it difficult to discuss, etc, discussing as a class each time.

Without looking above, write the correct superlative form of each adjective below.

- annoying/ irritating
- bad
- beautiful
- boring
- cheap
- cool
- cute
- difficult
- disgusting
- easy
- fun toy
- good
- hard
- healthy
- important
- lazy
- relaxing
- scary
- stressful
- tasty
- trendy

Compare with above.

Use those examples to make rules for when to add “most” and when to add “-est”.

the most +

+est

+iest