

Xmas superlatives drawing competition

Put together a superlative adjective card and a Xmas thing card, changing the adjective to “most”, “-est”, etc if you need to. Then compete to make the picture which best matches that description. Vote on which is “the most.../ the ...est”, then take turns doing the same with different cards from below.

No superlatives version

the tall	the happy	the cold	the long
the scary	the big	the cute	the bright
the small	the delicious	the hot	the disgusting
the good	the pretty	the bad	the loud
the fast/ quick	the fat	the thin	the expensive

Forming superlative adjectives grammar presentation

Write the superlative forms on No Superlatives Version cards above, then check as a class or with the With Superlatives Version below.

Try to work out what the five different patterns are for forming the superlative adjectives above. (They are not arranged into groups there, so think about which ones are similar and why).

Which kinds of adjectives take each of those five forms?

Check as a class or with the suggested answers under the fold.
